

CURRENT RESEARCH IN TENNESSEE ARCHAEOLOGY

18th ANNUAL MEETING

Friday, February 3 and Saturday, February 4, 2006
Ed Jones Auditorium, Ellington Agricultural Center
Edmondson Pike, Nashville, Tennessee

Sponsors: Tennessee Division of Archaeology and Middle Tennessee State University

Organizers: Michael C. Moore, Assistant State Archaeologist, Tennessee Division of Archaeology, 1216 Foster Avenue, Cole Building #3, Nashville, Tennessee 37210. Phone: (615) 741-1588, ext. 20. FAX (615) 741-7329. E-mail (Mike.C.Moore@state.tn.us); and Kevin E. Smith, Professor of Anthropology, Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Middle Tennessee State University, Post Office Box 10, Murfreesboro, Tennessee 37132. Phone: (615) 898-5958 or 2508. FAX (615) 898-5427. E-mail (kesmith@mtsu.edu)

Contributed Papers: Presentations should address current or recent research pertaining to archaeology in the state of Tennessee. Presentations must be limited to fifteen (15) minutes and are strongly encouraged to be given in an “informal” fashion. Title and abstract should be sent to Michael Moore or Kevin Smith not later than January 13, 2006 for inclusion in the program. PowerPoint presentations: A LCD projector and IBM-compatible laptop will be available for PowerPoint presentations. Requests to use the equipment must be submitted with the title and abstract. Presenters using the equipment must either provide the PowerPoint file prior to the meeting (via email, CD, or zip-disk) or plan to arrive by 7:45 am on Saturday with a CD or 100-Mb format zip disk containing the presentation to be loaded on the laptop. Presenters should be aware that special animation schemes vary by the version of PowerPoint and may not be compatible with the version provided.

Reception: A reception has been tentatively planned for Friday afternoon. Additional details will be provided with the preliminary program.

Catered Lunch: Saturday lunch will be catered by the Division of Archaeology. Cost: $8.00 per person. Make check payable to Mary Jo Reeder and forward to the Division of Archaeology to be received by January 23, 2006. Menu will be pork and turkey BBQ with all the trimmings.

Preliminary Program: A preliminary program will be mailed approximately January 16, 2006, as well as posted on the Tennessee Archaeology Net (www.mtsu.edu/~kesmith/TNARCH/index.html)
